

ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT

No. CR 06-1384

HENRY JAY BUNCH
Appellant

v.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
Appellee

Opinion Delivered May 3, 2007

PRO SE MOTION TO AMEND BRIEF
[CIRCUIT COURT OF WASHINGTON
COUNTY, CR 2004-2659, HON.
WILLIAM A. STOREY, JUDGE]

MOTION GRANTED.

PER CURIAM

Now before us is the pro se motion of appellant Henry Jay Bunch to file an amended brief on appeal. We previously granted appellant's pro se motion to correct the record, and granted an extension of fourteen days for him to file his brief-in-chief. Bunch v. State, CR 06-1384 (Ark. Mar. 8, 2007) (per curiam). Appellant filed his brief-in-chief on March 9, 2007. In the instant motion, appellant contends that he submitted his brief prematurely before he was aware that this court granted him the additional time to file the brief.

Here, appellant has stated good cause for filing an amended brief, in that his additional argument will address testimony contained on the page missing from the transcript that was the subject of the motion to correct the record. In addition, appellant has not exceeded his page limit for his argument, and the State's response brief is not due until May 9, 2007. For the above reasons, appellant's motion is granted. Appellant's amended brief must be submitted no later than fourteen days from the date of this opinion.

Motion granted.
